*Lord, God, all creation is yours, and you call us to serve you by caring for the gifts that surround us. May the example of St. Isidore urge us to share our food with the hungry and to work for the salvation of mankind. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

DO SOMETHING BEAUTIFUL FOR GOD

The Essential Teachings of Mother Teresa

Sunday, January 10: "Holiness does not consist in doing extraordinary things. It consists in accepting, with a smile, what Jesus sends us. It consists in accepting and following the will of God."

Monday, January 11: "Prayer makes your heart bigger, until it is capable of containing the gift of God himself."

Tuesday, January 12: "Without a spirit of sacrifice, without a life of prayer, without an intimate attitude of penance, we would not be capable of carrying out our work."

Wednesday, January 13: "Today it is very fashionable to talk about the poor. Unfortunately, it is not fashionable to talk with them."

Thursday, January 14: "Peace and war begin at home. If we truly want peace in the world, let us begin by loving one another in our own families. If we want to spread joy, we need for every family to have joy."

Friday, January 15: "At the moment of death we will not be judged according to the number of good deeds we have done or by the diplomas we have received in our lifetime. We will be judged according to the love we have put into our work."

Saturday, January 16: "To smile at someone who is sad; to visit, even for a little while, someone who is lonely; to give someone shelter from the rain with our umbrella; to read something for someone who is blind" these and others can be small things, very small things, but they are appropriate to give our love of God concrete expression."

The Mystical Body of Christ

“I am the vine; you are the branches.” On these words of Jesus, which describes our union with Him, the whole doctrine of the Mystical Body of Christ is founded. Only the figure is changed: instead of the vine, we speak of the Body of which Christ is the Head and we are the members. In explaining this doctrine, Saint Paul aptly paraphrases what Jesus had previously said. “As the body is one, and has many members; and all the members of the body, whereas they are many, yet are one body, so also is Christ... Now you are the Body of Christ, and members of member. (1 Cor 12:27)

The thought in both descriptions is evidently identical: as the branches are part of the vine on which they grow and from which they are nourished with one sap; as the parts of the human body form one body and have a single life; so we, being incorporated in Christ, make but one body with Him and live of His Life. This is the Mystical Body of Christ which Saint Paul teaches “is the Church.” (Col. 1:24)

Christ is the head of this Body. “Christ the Head of the Church... He is the Savior of the Body” (Eph 5:23) The Father “has made Him Head over all the Church, which is His Body... and His fullness” (cf ibid, 1:22-23). One Body, one life which comes to each of its members from the Head. “Christ Our Lord vivifies the Church with His own supernatural life; by His divine power He penetrates the whole Body and nourishes and sustains each of its members... Very much as the Vine nourishes and makes fruitful the branches which are joined to it “Mystici corporis.” The fact that every Christian has life in Christ and lives of the very life of Christ is reaffirmed in these words.

Our union with Christ, the Head of the Mystical Body, is certainly not to be understood as being identical with the union that exists among the various members of a physical body. In fact, although we are incorporated in Him, each one of us preserves “intact His own personality”. But neither should we understand this union to be a mere moral union, such as exists, for example, among members of the same organization. No, it is something much more profound, it is a mysterious union, and in this sense is called mystical, but it is no less real and vital. It is a union which comes from there being present in all the parts of the Body of the Church “a distinct internal principle, which exists effectively in the whole and in each of its parts, and whose excellence is such, that of itself it is vastly superior to whatever bonds of union may be found in a physical or moral body. This principle is... not of the natural but of the supernatural order. Essentially it is something infinite, uncreated: it is the Spirit of God, who, as the Angelic Doctor says, “one and the same for all, fills and unifies the whole Church.” The Holy Spirit, “the soul of the Church,” is the bond which intimately and really unites and vivifies all the members of Christ, diffusing grace and charity in them. He has been “given to the Church with most copious effusion, so that its members from day to day might become always more like the Redeemer.” Therefore, it is not a question of a symbolical, metaphorical union, but of a real union, so real that it surpasses all the others “as grace surpasses nature, and immortal realities surpass perishable realities.” It is a reality so great that it embraces not only our earthly life but, provided we preserve it, it continues to be the source of our happiness for all eternity. Indeed, “grace is the seed of glory.”

“We are members of Christ. This is our greatness and our glory, infinitely surpassing all earthly dignity and glory.”

Pray Without Ceasing...

Prayer During A Pandemic

Loving God, Holy One,
Your desire is for our wholeness and well-being.

We hold in tenderness and prayer
the collective suffering of our world at this time.

We grieve precious lives lost and vulnerable lives threatened.

We ache for ourselves and our neighbors,
standing before an uncertain future.

We pray: may love, not fear, go viral.

Inspire our leaders to discern and choose wisely, aligned with the common good.

Help us to practice social distancing and reveal to us new and creative ways to come together in spirit and in solidarity.

Call us to profound trust in your faithful presence,
You, the God who does not abandon,
You, the Holy One,
breathing within us,
breathing among us,
breathing around us
in our beautiful yet wounded world.
