Our Mission Statement

*Lord, God, all creation is yours, and you call us to serve you by caring for the gifts that surround us. May the example of St. Isidore urge us to share our food with the hungry and to work for the salvation of mankind. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.
Saint Isidore, Pray for Us.*

The Little Way for Every Day Thoughts from Therese of Lisieux

Jan. 15: “Jesus more and more desires a throne of gold, and this throne is your pure heart.”

Jan. 16: “Through all my life, the Lord has been pleased to surround me with love; my first recollections are of smiles and tender caresses.”

Jan. 17: “What sweet joy to think that the Lord is just that He takes into account our weakness, and knows perfectly the frailty of our nature.”

Jan. 18: “O my God, You are love.”

Jan. 19: “I see that the Lord alone is immutable, that He alone can fulfill my immense desires.”

Jan. 20: “Do not fear. If you are faithful in pleasing Jesus in little things, He will be obliged to help you in the greater things.”

Jan. 21: Feast of St. Agnes, Patroness of DRVC “At any price I wish to gain the palm of St. Agnes; if not by blood, it must be done by love.”

The Season of ORDINARY TIME

What Ordinary Time Means in the Catholic Church And Why Is It Called That?

The term ordinary in English most often means something that's not special or distinctive, many people think that Ordinary Time refers to parts of the calendar of the Catholic Church that are unimportant. Even though the season of Ordinary Time makes up most of the liturgical year in the Catholic Church, the fact that Ordinary Time refers to those periods that fall outside of the major liturgical seasons reinforces this impression. Yet Ordinary Time is far from unimportant or uninteresting. Ordinary Time is called "ordinary" not because it is common but simply because the weeks of Ordinary Time are numbered. The Latin word ordinalis, which refers to numbers in a series, stems from the Latin word ordo, from which we get the English word order. Thus, the numbered weeks of Ordinary Time, in fact, represent the ordered life of the Church—the period in which we live our lives neither in feasting (as in the Christmas and Easter seasons) or in more severe penance (as in Advent and Lent), but in watchfulness and expectation of the Second Coming of Christ.

It's appropriate, therefore, that the Gospel for the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time (which is actually the first Sunday celebrated in Ordinary Time) always features either John the Baptist's acknowledgment of Christ as the Lamb of God or Christ's first miracle—the transformation of water into wine at the wedding at Cana. Thus for Catholics, Ordinary Time is the part of the year in which Christ, the Lamb of God, walks among us and transforms our lives. There's nothing "ordinary" about that!

Why Is Green the Color of Ordinary Time?

Likewise, the normal liturgical color for Ordinary Time—for those days when there is no special feast—is green. Green vestments and altar cloths have traditionally been associated with the time after Pentecost, the period in which the Church founded by the risen Christ and enlivened by the Holy Spirit began to grow and to spread the Gospel to all nations.

When Is Ordinary Time?

Ordinary Time refers to all of those parts of the Catholic Church's liturgical year that aren't included in the major seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. Ordinary Time thus encompasses two different periods in the Church's calendar, since the Christmas season immediately follows Advent, and the Easter season immediately follows Lent.

The Church year begins with Advent, followed immediately by the Christmas season. Ordinary Time begins on the Monday after the first Sunday after January 6, the traditional date of the Feast of the Epiphany and the end of the liturgical season of Christmas. This first period of Ordinary Time runs until Ash Wednesday when the liturgical season of Lent begins. Both Lent and the Easter season fall outside of Ordinary Time, which resumes again on the Monday after Pentecost Sunday, the end of the Easter season. This second period of Ordinary Time runs until the First Sunday of Advent when the liturgical year begins again.

Why Is There No First Sunday in Ordinary Time?

In most years, the Sunday after January 6 is the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. In countries such as the United States, however, where the celebration of Epiphany is transferred to Sunday if that Sunday is January 7 or 8, Epiphany is celebrated instead. As feasts of our Lord, both the Baptism of the Lord and Epiphany displace a Sunday in Ordinary Time. Thus the first Sunday in the period of Ordinary Time is the Sunday that falls after the first week of Ordinary Time, which makes it the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time.

Why Is There No Ordinary Time in the Traditional Calendar?

Ordinary Time is a feature of the current (post-Vatican II) liturgical calendar. In the traditional Catholic calendar used before 1970 and still used in the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass, as well as in the calendars of the Eastern Catholic Churches, the Sundays of Ordinary Time are referred to as the Sundays After Epiphany and the Sundays After Pentecost.

How Many Sundays Are There in Ordinary Time?

In any given year, there are either 33 or 34 Sundays in Ordinary Time. Because Easter is a moveable feast, and thus the Lent and Easter seasons "float" from year to year, the number of Sundays in each period of Ordinary Time vary from the other period as well as from year to year.

If you have spare WINTER clothes to donate to help the homeless in Philadelphia, please bring them to Church this week (January 15th thru January 22nd.) There will be bags in the front to collect them.

Jesli masz zbedne zimowe rzeczy (tylko zimowe rzeczy: kurtki, spodnie, rekawiczki, szaliki itp) i chcesz pomoc bezdomnym w Philadephia, to prosze przynies je do kosciola w nastepnym tygodniu, tj. 15-22. stycznia. Z przodu kosciola bede ustawione specjalne torby na wasze dary dobrego serca.

CHRISTMAS THANKS YOU'S FROM THE ADVENT GIVING TREE

"I would like to thank you and all the other wonderful people who made donations and contributions and gift cards and Christmas gifts for my family. You all made Christmas possible for me and my family. I am deeply grateful and I thank God for you and all you do. I consider myself and family blessed. Thank you all so much for making our holiday season bright." ~Sarah and Family

"To the wonderful people of St. Isidore: We thank you so much for the gift cards and gifts you blessed us with. You made us so happy for Christmas and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts. Happy and Healthy New Year." ~Stacey & Michael

"Thank you very much. May God bless you for helping me and my family this special day." ~Mageyda

"Thank you very much for such beautiful Christmas gifts, I greatly appreciate the gifts for my children. You gave them a lot of happiness this Christmas and I can only ask God to greatly multiply your good intentions and to give you lots of health. Thank you very much for everything. Have a blessed 2023!" ~Marta & 3 Children
