Prayer Before The Blessed Sacrament

(St. Thérèse of Liseux)

Oh my God ... I desire to love you and to make you loved - to labor for the glory of Holy Church by saving souls here upon earth and by delivering those suffering in purgatory. I desire to fulfill perfectly your holy will, and to reach the degree of glory you have prepared for me in your Kingdom. In a word, I wish to be holy but, knowing how helpless I am, I beseech you, my God, to be yourself my holiness. Since you have loved me so much as to give me your Only-Begotten Son to be my Savior... the infinite treasures of his merits are mine. Gladly do I offer them to you, and I beg of you to behold me only through the eyes of Jesus, and in his heart aflame with love... Abide in me as I do in the tabernacle... When the evening of life comes, I shall stand before you with empty hands... I wish to be robed with your own justice, and to receive from your love the everlasting gift of yourself. I desire no other throne, no other crown, but you.

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds, hide me.
Suffer me not to be separated from thee.
From the malicious enemy, defend me.
In the hour of my death, call me
and bid me come unto thee,
that with thy saints I may praise thee
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Prayer of a Good Servant

Saint Rose Philippine Duchesne

(Founded the first houses in America of the Religious of the Sacred Heart of Jesus)

O my God, I desire to live as a victim offered in a spirit of penance and love. Then let me prepare all that is needed for a sacrifice of love whose perfume will rise even to the Heart of Jesus. May my whole being be the victim, all that I am and all that I have. May my own heart be the altar, my separation from the world and all earthly pleasures the sacrificial knife. May my love be the consuming fire, and my yearning desires the breeze that fans it.

Let me pour on it the incense and perfume of all virtues, and to this mystical sacrifice let me bring all that I cling to, that I may offer all, burn all, consume all, keeping back nothing for self. O Divine Love, my very God, except the sacrifice which I desire to offer you at every instant of my life.

MEDITATION OF THE DAY

CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

Saint Charles Borromeo

Various reminders gathered together here will be useful to be read often, each one as in a mirror to see in part the form of the Christian life and what is lacking and what should be done.

The principle thing we must acquire and have is the grace of God, without which one cannot live in a Christian way. For this it will help to have the fear of God, which is the beginning of our Salvation and every good, guarding ourselves against anything which would offend his most pure eyes. Therefore always have God before your eyes, and whose sight you stand and who always sees you. Consider often the end for which you have been created, which is to acquire heavenly glory, and that toward this goal you must set out ... think often about death, the strict judgment of God, and what must follow afterward. Have zeal for the honor of God. Have great reverence for all the things of God, his Saints, all the orders of Holy Church and your pastor, taking care to show entire respect and obedience. Have great confidence in the Lord, who will always be everything for your greatest good.

Have your eye continually on the Providence of God, thinking that nothing comes about without his Will and that good is drawn out of everything. Take care to be grateful to God for his many benefits, recognizing them, thanking him and living well in order to show your gratitude. Do not be concerned about pleasing men, provided you are pleasing to God, and always be looking out for what will be to his greater glory in service. Await the reward for your every effort from Christ and not from the world. In your affairs and works, have the intention never to will anything illicit, and to perform them all for love of the Lord so that all of them may be meritorious. Know and recall that there is no greater wealth and treasure, nothing more excellent and fruitful, than to love God and serve him, and that everything else passes like smoke and shadows.

Meditation of The Day

Sharing in the Call of the Apostles

(from the Decree on the Apostolate of the Laity)

The Christian vocation by its very nature is also a vocation to the apostolate. No part of the structure of a living body is merely passive but has a share in the functions as well as the life of the body... One engages in the apostolate through the faith, hope, and charity which the Holy Spirit diffuses in the hearts of all members of the Church. Indeed, by the precept of charity, which is the Lord's greatest commandment, all the faithful are impelled to promote the glory of God through the coming of his Kingdom and to obtain Eternal life for all people, that they may know the only true God and him whom he sent, Jesus Christ. All Christians therefore is laid the preeminent responsibility of working to make the divine message of salvation known and accepted...

Since Christ, sent by the father, is the source and origin of the whole apostolate of the church, the success of the lay apostolate depends upon the laity's living union with Christ, in keeping with the Lord's words, He who abides in me, and I in him, bears much fruit, for without me you can do nothing (John 15:5). This life of intimate union with Christ in the church is nourished by spiritual aids which are common to all the faithful, especially active participation in the sacred liturgy... They who have this faith live in the hope of the revelation of the sons of God and keep in mind the cross and resurrection of the Lord. In the pilgrimage of this life, hidden with Christ in God and free from enslavement to wealth, they aspire to those riches which remain forever generously dedicate themselves wholly to the advancement of the Kingdom of God and to the reform and improvement of the temporal order and a Christian spirit. Among the trials of this life they find strength and hope, convinced that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us (Romans 8: 18) ...

The perfect example of this type of spiritual and Apostolic life is the most Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of Apostles, who while leading the life common to all here on earth, one filled with family concerns and labors, was always intimately united with her Son and in an entirely unique way cooperated in the work of the Savior. Having now been assumed into heaven, with her maternal charity she cares for these brothers of her Son who are still on their earthly pilgrimage and remain involved in dangers and difficulties until they are led into the happy fatherland. All should devoutly venerate her and commend their life and apostolate to her maternal care.

Sunday, Nov 15, 2020 THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Believe in magic—your own! We each have a little something special we can call our own. Maybe it's school smarts or street smarts. Maybe you know your way around the halls of power or around the kitchen. Some are good with kids, others with elders, still others with sick or dying people. You might be great with people, or math, or words, or research. You could be physically strong or have that dogged ability to keep at a task when everybody else gives up. Do an assessment of your gifts and skills. Whatever your special magic is, put it at the disposal of grace. TODAY'S READINGS: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31; 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6; Matthew 25:14-30 (157). "Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more."

Monday, Nov 16, 2020 MEMORIAL OF GERTRUDE THE GREAT, VIRGIN

Mystic mysteries Me, a mystic? Yes, you! Intimate union with Christ is called "mystical" because it participates in the mystery of Christ through the sacraments, the catechism says, and "God calls all of us to this intimate union with him . . ." But, you may be thinking, I don't have visions or experiences of ecstasy, and I definitely don't have stigmata, like a saint we remember today, Gertrude the Great, German Benedictine mystic of the 13th century. No matter, the catechism says, "The special graces or extraordinary signs of this mystical life are granted only to some for the sake of manifesting the gratuitous gift to all." Enjoy your slice of the mystery TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 1:1-4; 2:1-5; Luke 18:35-43 (497). "Have sight; your faith has saved you."

Tuesday, Nov 17, 2020 MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, RELIGIOUS

Love the one you're with As a young queen, Elizabeth of Hungary was so moved by the love of Saint Francis of Assisi that she took care of the sick and poor herself, tending to them like a servant in her own castle. Equally notable, though, is the loving relationship Elizabeth had with her husband, King Louis of Thuringia. Growing up together, their mutual affection was exceptionally deep as friends and confidants—long before they married and became parents. Most notably, they championed each other in the practice of their Christian faith. Today, pray gratefully for loved ones who have nurtured your own faith. TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 3:1-6, 14-22; Luke 19:1-10 (498). "Half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor."

Wednesday, Nov 18, 2020 MEMORIAL OF ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE, VIRGIN

Pray always One of Rose Philippine Duchesne's (1769-1852) biographers noted that she was born with a strong and dauntless will. She ignored family wishes and joined a French convent, intent on ministry to Native American peoples. Not until the age of 49 did she set sail for St. Louis, where her ministry of opening schools and orphanages remained much the same as in her native France. After many years of ministry, at the age of 72 Rose was asked to live among the Potawatomie Indians in Sugar Creek, Kansas. It was a short-lived assignment—her health was failing—yet Rose's ministry of prayer was recognized by the Potawatomie, who called her Woman-Who-Prays-Always. The witness of Saint Rose reminds us that where there is a will—our own and God's—there is a way. Ask for the grace today to seek and embrace God's will. TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 4:1-11; Luke 19:11-28 (499) or for the Dedication, Acts 28:11-16, 30-31; Matthew 14:22-33 (679). "'Sir, your gold coin has earned ten additional ones.' He replied, 'Well done, good servant!'"

Thursday, Nov 19, 2020 The Omega point

These days Catholic laity and leaders don't typically dwell on the so-called "end times." Modern Catholics tend to be engaged in questions of how to live here and now for the common good and our personal salvation. Pope Francis frequently urges us on in righteous living. That is the context as our year moves toward its own "end times." The year 2020 has been hard around the world. We can hope and pray that 2021 will be gentler and promote that outcome in our own interactions with others in this contentious age. Put your trust in God, the Alpha and Omega. TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 5:1-10; Luke 19:41-44 (500). "[Jesus] saw the city and wept over it, saying, 'If this day you only knew what makes for peace.'"

Friday, Nov 20, 2020 Feed the children

Today is World Children's Day. It marks the anniversary of the 1959 signing of the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of the Child. A fundamental right of every child is to live and grow. But a 2018 study by UNICEF found that more than 3 million children in the world die from malnutrition every year. Some people ask why God allows this to happen. But that misses the point. God commands us to feed the hungry, and Catholics have a serious obligation to do just that. Log on to Catholic Relief Services (CRS.org) and find out how you can help feed the starving children of the world. TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 10:8-11; Luke 19:45-48 (501). "Yes, your decrees are my delight; they are my counselors."

Saturday, Nov 21, 2020 MEMORIAL OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Your presence is requested Celebration of Mary's presentation at the temple—a story from time-honored tradition rather than directly from scripture—took place as early as the sixth century in Jerusalem. The Eastern Church ran with it right away, but the West was slow to follow. At times the feast seemed to disappear entirely from the calendar, but finally in the 16th century it took its place as a universal feast. Though the feast points to Mary's lifetime of preparation for her sacred role in salvation, it also invites each of us to ponder for a moment: Suppose Jesus came knocking right now to bring you to the heavenly temple. Would you be prepared? If you feel a bit sloppy or unkempt, spiritually speaking, now is a great chance to do what is necessary to become a bit more presentable! TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 11:4-12; Luke 20:27-40 (502). "Then they heard a loud voice from heaven say to them, 'Come up here.'"
